- 1. General Chuikov has ordered the creation of a scientific council charged with expediting the solution of the technical and economic problems connected with the Ruegen Island construction project. The project is to be completed by 1954.
- 2. The responsible head for the project is Waldemar Verner, head of the Seepolizei. The construction work itself is under the supervision of Engineer Boldt (fnu), who was in charge of a similar project for the German navy in 1945. The total cost for the construction has been estimated at 2,000 million IM (sic).
- 3. In October 1952 the digging of a channel near Glowe was begun. The cost for this was to be 300 million DM. A camp for convict laborers was also being built at a cost of 3 million DM.
